

Water Education Project Officer Monthly Report October 2010

- Increase in education of catchment health and source water issues at a primary, secondary and college levels.
Delivered 2X Water bug activity mornings to Torrens Pre School (12/10 & 15/10).
Delivered lesson on Algae assessment to Lanyon HS Trek students (28/10).
The excursions listed below also acted to increase education of catchment health issues. Many excursions also begin with an in class session to discuss concepts encountered in the field.
- Increase in school excursions to venues and activities highlighting catchment and source water issues.
Provided opportunity for ACT Scouts to engage in a Holiday program through ACT Waterwatch. (10/10)
Delivered RARC field trip lesson to C.I.T. students at Point Hut Crossing.(11/10).
Partnership with ACT FrogWatch to provided opportunity for Weston Joeys group to undertake frog monitoring. (13/10).
Assisted in combined regional Waterwatch field trip for Monaro HS (21/10/)
- Increase in students “Acting for an environmentally sustainable future” as identified by the Essential Learning Achievements 20 (ACT Dept Education Curriculum)
Met with Lanyon HS’s ‘Green Team’ students to discuss activities for term 4. (21/10).
Through participating in the above field excursions students have had increased opportunities to learn and understand the key attitudes and values that are identified in the ELA 20 of the ‘Every chance to learn’ curriculum framework.
- Increase in teacher awareness of learning activities and opportunities that address objectives of ELA 20 as identifies by the ACT Department of Education.

Met with Lanyon HS’s ‘Green Team’ teacher to discuss activities for term 4. (21/10).